

Nottinghamshire County Commissioner Challenge

Take on the challenge

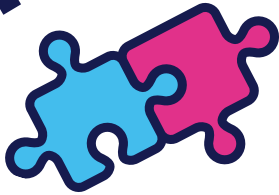

Complete 10 clauses in total. Choose two from each section, plus a further two of your choice from any section:

At least 2 of your 10 challenges

must be  challenges.

Connect

Build your guiding community!

Girlguiding works best when we know, support and learn from people beyond our own unit.

Invite a commissioner to visit one of your unit meetings.

Visit or help at another unit.

Run an activity or session that helps young members move confidently to their next section.

Hold a joint meeting, activity, trip or event with another unit in your division.

Attend a district or division meeting in person.

Invite members of your local Trefoil Guild to support a unit activity, event or camp.

Take an idea, issue or request from your unit to a district or division meeting.

Be a home contact for another unit.

Organise a district or division volunteer social.

Hold a joint meeting, activity, trip or event with a unit from another division.

Organise a volunteer social or activity with another division.

Explore

Discover Girlguiding Nottinghamshire!

There is lots happening across the county.
Explore the places, events, resources and opportunities available to you.

Use the County Shop, either in person or by delivery.

Attend
County
Day.

Visit and use one of our county
properties: Elton,
Hanson House,
Roughbreck,
Paxdien or Beeston
HQ.

.Book the County
Shop to run a pop-up shop at an event.

Volunteer at the County Shop or one of our county
properties.

Find out about a county opportunity
you have never been involved with before.

Encourage or support a Guide, Ranger or volunteer to take part in County
INTEX.

Take your unit or leadership team to help at a county property, for example
with gardening,
cleaning, decorating
or maintenance.

Take your unit to a county
event.

Help guiding grow!

Develop yourself, help other volunteers grow and contribute your skills to the future of Girlguiding.

Tell someone who could make a great volunteer about opportunities to get involved in Girlguiding.

Spend a meeting or activity volunteering with a different section.

Attend a district, division or county training or development opportunity you have not attended before.

Support a new volunteer.

Help a Young Leader make progress towards or complete their qualification.

Share a skill, activity or piece of expertise with volunteers outside your own unit.

Complete an online training on the Learning & Development Platform.

Recruit a new volunteer for your unit, district or division.

Become a county adviser, coordinator, trainer or other county volunteer.

Create a challenge badge or resource that other units can use.

Become a mentor and support at least one mentee to complete their qualification.

Organise a joint fundraiser that benefits your district or division.

Celebrate

Amazing things happen across Nottinghamshire every week!

Help make sure the people, achievements and stories behind them are seen and celebrated.

Nominate a volunteer or young member for an award.

Share a county, division or district opportunity with someone who might not otherwise hear about it.

Tell the story of something your district, division or county has achieved, for example through a newsletter, display, social media post or unit activity.

Send photographs, newspaper articles, event records, badges or other suitable items to the county archive.

Send something brilliant about your unit to the county PR or social media team.

Find out about one of our county awards.

Plan and carry out something that celebrates or thanks volunteers in your unit, district or division.

Thank a volunteer outside your own unit for something they have contributed to Girlguiding.

Celebrate an achievement from another unit, district or division.

Run a stall or activity at a community event to promote Girlguiding and what we do.

